

UNPUBLISHED REPORT 1969/02

Mineralogy of a sand sample from Longford

by G. B. Everard

A sample of sand from Bore 46 on Mr C. Dixon's property near Longford was examined and found to consist mainly of subangular grains of quartz and quartzite averaging about 0.1 mm across with 5% ilmenite and magnetite, 2% zircon and traces of feldspar and tourmaline.

[9 January 1969]