GOLGONDA.

No. 2 Royal Treasury West.—Mr G. A. Fulton, manager, received a letter yesterday from the prospectors dated 27th instant, stating that they had struck a large body of stone on the No. 2 Royal Treasury West claim, which promised to be a very large reef. They had not yet had time to ascertain much about it, but it was on the line of the Royal Treasury reef. A second letter from another source confirms the good news, and states that gold can be obtained from the stone by crushing, and it is supposed to be the same line of reef as the Royal Treasury.
